

In Practice

Continuing education in veterinary practice p5 Dealing with cases of haemoabdomen in cats and dogs

p47 Guide to diagnosing and treating the itchy horse

p58 Building a strong brand for your veterinary practice

IN THIS ISSUE

- 3 The horse with pruritis
Laura Honey

CLINICAL PRACTICE

Companion animals

- 5 Approach to haemoabdomen in small animal patients
Kathryn Pratschke
- 20 Dealing with immune-mediated haematological diseases in dogs and cats 2. Thrombocytopenia and Evan's syndrome
Nat Whitley
- 27 Supporting the intoxicated patient: toxicants affecting the neurological and cardiovascular systems
Erica Tinson, Simon Cook

Farm animals

- 39 Johne's disease in dairy herds 1. Understanding the disease
Pete Orpin, Dick Sibley, Karen Bond

Equine

- 47 Diagnosis and management of the itchy horse
Ben Curnow

Clinical practice

- 57 Thank you to our reviewers

PRACTICE MANAGEMENT

Marketing

- 58 How to successfully brand your veterinary business
Will Stirling

OPINION

Everyday ethics

- 61 Treating exotics when your colleague has limited expertise
- 63 Comments on: When your duty of care extends beyond the patient to the client

A practitioner ponders

- 64 Is it time to be put out to pasture?