

In Practice

Continuing education in veterinary practice

FARM ANIMALS

p151 Dealing with pet African pygmy hedgehogs

p171 Managing anovulatory follicles in horses
– new knowledge on the condition

p181 What do you do when you need to perform immediate emergency care on an animal but haven't yet obtained the client's consent?

IN THIS ISSUE

- 139 Performing dentistry in cats
Laura Honey

CLINICAL PRACTICE

Companion animals

- 140 Treating traumatic injuries of canine teeth in cats
Matthew Oxford

Exotics

- 151 Veterinary care of African pygmy hedgehogs
Nathalie Wissink-Argilaga

Farm animals

- 159 Johne's disease in dairy herds 2. Effective control using the National Johne's Management Plan
Pete Orpin, Dick Sibley, Karen Bond

Equine

- 171 Update on the management of the anovulatory follicle in horses
James Crabtree

PRACTICE MANAGEMENT

Practice improvement

- 177 Using nursing care plans to support effective working
Helen Ballantyne

OPINION

Everyday ethics

- 181 Performing emergency care without client consent
183 Comments on: Dealing with a case of suspected drug abuse in the practice

Off the record

- 184 Introducing the 'doggy deposit'