

In Practice

Istituto Zooprofilattico Sperimentale
del Mezzogiorno BIBLIOTECA
Via Salute, 2 80055 PORTICI (Napoli)

Continuing education in veterinary practice

p 197 Guide to preanaesthetic screening in dogs and cats

p 219 Review of enterotoxaemias and other alimentary tract infections in farm animals

p 245 Should you sedate a horse purely for the purposes of a film production?

IN THIS ISSUE

- 187 Screening dogs and cats before performing general anaesthesia
Laura Honey

CLINICAL PRACTICE

Companion animals

- 188 A clinician's guide to making a diagnosis of atopic dermatitis in dogs
Natalie Barnard
- 197 Preanaesthetic screening in dogs and cats
Jacques Ferreira
- 209 Supporting the intoxicated patient: toxicants affecting the haematological and renal systems
Karen Humm, Erica Tinson

Farm animals

- 219 Clostridial diseases in farm animals: 1. Enterotoxaemias and other alimentary tract infections
Arthur Otter, Francisco A. Uzal

Equine

- 233 Diagnosing and treating ringworm in horses
Andy Durham

PRACTICE MANAGEMENT

Covid-19

- 238 A guide to the Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme
Elaine Fisher, Mark Harwood

You

- 243 Recognising and managing the impostor phenomenon
Kate Atkin

OPINION

Everyday ethics

- 245 Sedating a horse for the purpose of film production
- 247 Comments on: Performing emergency care without client consent

Off the record

- 248 What strange days we live in